Performance after January 1, 2021 occurred while the investment management team was affiliated with IP. Description: The Outlier Growth Composite invests in approximately 33 stocks of high-quality rapidly growing U.S. companies. The investment objective of the composite is capital appreciation. The Outlier Growth Composite consists of fully discretionary portfolios, including those accounts no longer with the firm. The composite excludes portfolios under $50,000. For comparison purposes the composite is measured against the Russell 3000 Index. The Composite inception date is November 1, 2020.

Performance presented are time-weighted returns. Valuations and performance is reported in U.S. dollars. Composite performance is presented on gross-of-fees and net-of-fees basis and includes the reinvestment of income (dividends/interest). Gross-of-fees returns are presented before management and custodial fees but after all trading expenses. Net-of-fees returns are calculated by deducting a model management fee of 0.3125, ¼ of the highest annual management fee of 1.25%, from the quarterly gross composite return, applied the first month of each quarter. Actual advisory fees incurred by clients may vary.

The benchmark is the Russell 3000, a market-capitalization-weighted equity index that provides exposure to the entire U.S. stock market, tracking 3,000 of the largest U.S.-traded stocks. An index should only be compared with a mandate that has a similar investment objective. An index is not available for direct investment and does not reflect any of the costs associated with buying and selling individual securities or management fees, the incurrence of which would have the effect of decreasing historical performance results. There can be no assurances that a composite will match or outperform any particular benchmark.

Past performance is no guarantee of future performance and there is a risk of loss of all or part of your investment. Individual client performance returns may be different than the composite returns listed. Changes in investment strategies, contributions or withdrawals, and economic conditions may materially alter the performance of your portfolio.

Different types of investments involve varying degrees of risk, and there can be no assurance that any specific investment or strategy will be suitable or profitable for a client's portfolio.
